D.O.No.G-12011/2/2015-Ins.II

Subject: Launch of the Pradhan Mantri Suraksha Bima Yojana (PMSBY), Pradhan Mantri Jeevan Jyoti Bima Yojana (PMJJBY) and the Atal Pension Yojana by the Prime Minister on 9th May 2015 at Kolkata

Dear

As you would be aware the Budget Speech 2015 had envisaged three Social Security Schemes pertaining to the insurance and pension sector, namely the Pradhan Mantri Jeevan Jyoti Bima Yojana (PMJJBY), the Pradhan Mantri Suraksha Bima Yojana (PMSBY) and an old age income security pension scheme, the Atal Pension Yojana (APY), to move towards creating a universal social security system, targeted especially at the poor and the under-privileged.

2. PMSBY will offer a renewable one year Rupees two lakh accident cum disability cover (Rupees One Lakh for partial permanent disability) to all savings bank account holders in the age group of 18 to 70 years for a premium of Rs. 12/- per annum per subscriber to be auto-debited from the subscriber's bank account on enrolment in the scheme.

3. PMJJBY on the other hand offers a renewable one year Rupees two Lakh life cover to all savings bank account holders in the age group of 18 to 50 years, covering death due to any reason, for a premium of Rs.330/- per annum per subscriber to be auto-debited from the subscriber's bank account on enrolment in the scheme.

4. APY, the third scheme to be launched, targets old age income security and will focus on the unorganised sector. It will provide subscribers a fixed minimum pension per month starting at the age of 60 years on entering the scheme at an age between 18 and 40 years, to ensure a minimum period of contribution of 20 years or more to enable an adequate pension corpus. The fixed minimum pension would be guaranteed by the Government. While the scheme is open to bank account holders in the prescribed age group, the Central Government would also co-contribute 50% of the total contribution or Rs. 1000 per annum, whichever is lower, for a period of 5 years for those joining the scheme before 31st December, 2015 and are not members of any statutory social security scheme, and are not income tax payers.

5. I am happy to inform that the Hon'ble Prime Minister shall be launching these schemes Nationally at a function to be held at Kolkata at 6PM on 9th May 2015. Linked functions with VC connectivity are envisaged across the country, including in all State capitals. I am writing to request your support in the organization of these functions in your State and the participation of the Hon'ble Chief Minister and the Hon'ble Governor of the State. We are also planning similar launch functions in places other than State Capitals, where senior Ministers from the State Government could be deputed to participate. Central Ministers will also be present at all such functions. A request in this regard is being sent by the Finance Minister to the Chief Minister.

6. As indicated vide our earlier communication of even number dated 28th April 2015, coordinated by the State Level Bankers Committee (SLBC) coordinators and their Insurance Sector counterparts, participating Banks / Insurance Companies in every State are organizing pre-enrolment camps for PMSBY and PMJJBY from 1st May onwards in all Branches / fixed Business Correspondent locations, leading up to the formal launch of the schemes on 9th May 2015. The cooperation and support of the State Government is requested in this regard also.

7. In this context, I also take this opportunity to request you to consider encouraging various groups associated with State Government programmes, like MGNREGA workers, Aanganwadi workers, Self Help Groups, farmers, Vidya Volunteers / Para-teachers, industrial workers, government employees at all levels across departments etc. to subscribe to these schemes through their bank accounts so that they are able to get the significant insurance cover of up to Rs.4 Lakh (in the event of accidental death) from the two schemes subscribed to together, at a very reasonable premium of Rs.342/- (Rs. 330/- for PMJJBY and Rs. 12/- for PMSBY) per annum. This would enhance the level of insurance penetration in the country and would serve the cause of extending critical insurance cover at a very affordable cost through a systematic bank account based platform.

8. You are kindly requested to circulate this information to all departments in the State Government to systematically reach out to such groups, including State Government employees in the Headquarters and the Field, who could subscribe by approaching the bank branches in which they have savings accounts. The SLBC Coordinators in State and their associated Insurance Sector colleagues could also facilitate special camps for this purpose at the request of the State Government.

9. As outlined above, the support and guidance of the State Government is requested in:

(i) Facilitating the organization of the above mentioned enrolment camps across the State from 1st May 2015 onwards through the efforts of the SLBC coordinators and participating Banks / Insurance Companies.

(ii) Participation of State Government Departments in the enrolment drive, as suggested above.

(iii) Facilitating arrangements for the launch day functions in the State on 9th May 2015 and facilitating the participation of dignitaries as mentioned above. An indicative programme is enclosed.

10. I am confident that with your support and guidance for the various actions that are underway in the State, and the proposed launch event on 9th May 2015, as requested above, this ambitious initiative aimed at providing subscribers to these schemes and their families with significantly enhanced social security through an affordable and convenient bank based platform, will be a grand success. The SLBC coordinator in the State who will be working towards making the various arrangements along with the counterpart Insurance Company officers, and my colleagues, will be in touch with your office, to follow up in this regard and finalize the arrangements. You are also kindly requested to designate the State Mission Director, PMJDY in the State Government as the nodal officer for liaison and coordination in the matter.

11. I look forward to your feedback in this regard.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

Sd./-

Subject: Implementation of Pradhan Mantri Suraksha Bima Yojana (PMSBY), Pradhan Mantri Jeevan Jyoti Bima Yojana (PMJJBY) and Atal Pension Yojana (APY)

Dear Sir,

This has reference to the earlier DO letter of even no. dated 1st May, 2015 from Secretary, Financial Services vide which the support of the State Government was requested for creating awareness and promoting participation in the captioned schemes in the backdrop of their launch by the Hon'ble Prime Minister on 9th May, 2015. As you are aware, these schemes were successfully launched across all States on that day, with the objective of moving towards the creation of a universal social security system, focusing especially on the poor and the under-privileged.

2. In this regard, I am happy to inform that in the short period of about a month, about ten crore persons have enrolled under the schemes, as on 3rd June, 2015. The support and cooperation that has been received from various State Governments/UT administrations in achieving a successful launch and the encouraging initial participation under the schemes, is greatly appreciated. However, the achievement is still way below potential. The efforts put in thus far would need to be re-doubled to enable citizens to become aware of and benefit from these very attractive social security schemes.

2. To recap, as indicated in our earlier communication, the PMJJBY offers a renewable one year Rupees Two Lakh life cover to bank account holders in the age group of 18 to 50 years, covering death due to any reason, for a premium of Rs.330/- per annum per subscriber. PMSBY on the other hand offers a renewable one year Rupees Two Lakh accident cum disability cover (Rupees One Lakh for partial permanent disability) to account holders in the age group of 18 to 70 years for a premium of Rs. 12/- per annum per subscriber. APY enables subscribers to ensure their old age income security by contributing up to the age of 60 after enrolment between the ages of 18 and 40 years for a guaranteed minimum pension of Rs. 1000, 2000, 3000, 4000 or 5000, depending on the option chosen, starting at age 60, which could be higher based on actual returns on the accumulated corpus. The pension would also be available to the spouse of the subscriber on his death and after both the subscriber and the spouse are dead, the pension corpus at age 60 would be given to the nominee of the subscriber. The corpus would be prudently invested under the regulatory oversight of PFRDA. For individuals who meet eligibility conditions like not being income tax payers and members of any statutory social security scheme, a government co-contribution of up to Rs. 1000 per annum or 50% of the total contribution, whichever is lower, for five years is envisaged, in the event of enrolment by 31st December 2015.

4. In this context, I take this opportunity to reiterate our earlier request to consider encouraging various groups associated with State Government programmes, like MGNREGA workers, Aanganwadi workers, Self Help Groups, farmers, industrial workers, as also government employees at all levels across departments etc., to subscribe to these schemes, subject to eligibility, through their bank accounts, so that they are able to get the significant insurance cover of up to Rs.4 Lakh (in the event of accidental death) from the two insurance schemes subscribed to together, at a very reasonable premium of Rs.342/- (Rs. 330/- for PMJJBY and Rs. 12/-for PMSBY) per annum, and also achieve old age income security through APY. This would enhance the level of insurance and pension penetration in the country and would serve the cause of extending critical insurance cover / old age income security at a very affordable cost through a systematic bank account based platform.

5. You are kindly requested to again circulate this information to all departments in the State Government to systematically reach out to such groups, including State Government employees in the Headquarters and the Field, who could subscribe by approaching the bank branches in which they have accounts. The SLBC Coordinators in State and their associated Insurance Sector colleagues could also facilitate special camps for this purpose at the request of the State Government.

6. This support would be invaluable in building on the initial success achieved in this very ambitious initiative and enable enrolling of eligible citizens under these schemes, and thereby providing them and their families with significantly enhanced social security.

7. Further, the department has already requested support of the State Government vide email dated 28th May 2015 sent to the office of the Chief Secretary, for efforts aimed at creating awareness regarding submission / processing of claims under PMSBY/PMJJBY. LIC and the Public Sector General Insurance Companies have been requested to ensure wide publicity for the claims procedure, which provides for submission of the claim in the bank branch concerned, and ready availability of claim forms including through all Bank / Insurance Company branches and various websites. In addition to Bank / Insurance Company branches, they have been requested to ensure placing of informational posters in various public places like municipal offices, development blocks, tehsils, police stations, PHCs, hospitals etc. with the support of the State Government.

8. Your support on the above lines would be greatly appreciated. The department looks forward to your feedback in this regard.

With ^{kind} regards,

Yours sincerely,

Snehlata
